

ATLANTA, GA., February 5, 2016 – Atlanta Bonded Warehouse Corporation (ABW) is pleased to announce that it is the recipient of Barilla America’s Warehouse Partner of the Year for 2015. Barilla measures the performance of their 3PL partners on criteria covering cost, service levels, and inventory accuracy. The company with the highest performance throughout the calendar year is awarded this honor.

“Over the past 14 years, ABW and Barilla have built a relationship defined by quality, service, trust, and flexibility,” Blair Freedman, Manager of Warehouse Operations – Barilla Americas, said. “Over the years, ABW has demonstrated their commitment to Barilla through outstanding service and a willingness to do whatever is necessary to satisfy the demands of our customers. We appreciate the support and commitment that ABW has shown our business. The quality of the warehouse operations plus their proven performance make them a deserving partner with us and our customers.”
